Remarks

This three-bedroom, three-and-a-half-bath Avery home by Toll Brothers exemplifies elegance and tranquility, offering a seamless blend of comfort and elevated style. A gracious entry reveals refined modern coastal design and thoughtfully curated finishes, establishing an ambiance that is both sophisticated and welcoming. Designed for today's Florida lifestyle, the home is appointed with a whole-house generator and dehumidifier, along with hurricane-impact glass throughout. The expanded primary suite offers additional square footage and 12' ceilings, while the alternate kitchen layout and primary bath provide both beauty and functionality. Solid core doors, crown molding, and an extended covered lanai further enhance the home's thoughtful design, creating effortless indoor-outdoor living. Behind the scenes, quality improvements include a circulating hot water system, memory foam insulation, integrated security system, and solar roller shades throughout, with motorized shades at the rear of the home. Outdoors, a newly constructed pool and spa are complemented by a screened enclosure and Paramount marble decking, delivering a refined private retreat. The garage is also configured to accommodate a golf simulator, completing this exceptional home tailored for the Florida lifestyle.
